In 2021, the High-level Dialogue on Energy resulted in the Global Roadmap for Accelerated SDG 7 Action which provides a guide for collective action on energy across sectors that transcends individual and piecemeal approaches and delivers scaled-up and broad impact. Importantly, the Roadmap also includes two sets of milestones for 2025 and 2030. The Dialogue also triggered some 200 Energy Compacts with voluntary commitments of over US$600 billion into SDG 7. These achievements must now be used as the foundation for transformational change through just, inclusive and equitable energy transitions. The ambition must be to show the first results of this approach already at the Global Stock take on SDG 7 which was mandated by the UN General Assembly to be held in 2024.

Proposed guiding questions:

- How can progress towards ensuring universal access to energy be accelerated in support of rescuing the SDGs?
- How can we mitigate and reverse the setbacks in achieving universal energy access caused by COVID-19 and the global energy crisis in recent years?
- How can the application of renewable energy solutions and energy efficiency measures be accelerated, to turbo-charge just, inclusive and equitable energy transitions in support of climate action and net-zero emissions?
- How can international cooperation and the flow of finance to developing countries in support of achieving SDG 7 be improved, including addressing the needs of the most vulnerable?
- How can we further strengthen intergovernmental dialogues and cooperation on energy, and leverage multi-stakeholder
