

23. We commit to providing quality education at all levels – early childhood, primary, secondary and tertiary. All people irrespective of gender, age, race or ethnicity, including persons with disabilities, indigenous peoples, children and youth in vulnerable situations, should have access to learning that helps them acquire the knowledge and skills needed to exploit opportunities and to participate fully in society. We will strive to provide children and youth with a nurturing environment, through prioritizing investment in their well-being, health, life skills, skills training and entrepreneurship throughout the life course, supportive families, schools and stronger communities. for the full realization of their rights and capabilities and the realization of the demographic dividend where relevant.
